CITY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE FULLY CLEARED

It was learned yesterday that press reports of the recent finding of the territorial grand jury upon the charges of corruption in the city and county attorney's office did not contain two important words. These words make the exoneration of the county attorney's office even more emphatic than the draft of the report as published.

The case was that in which a Chinaman was alleged to have paid $1000 to Willie Crawford in return for a promise that a case against him would be dropped. The grand jury report, as published, stated that there was nothing to show that the money was paid to anyone "directly" connected with the office. The words, "or indirectly," were left out. The report in full was as follows:

"The grand jury after careful investigation, finds that there is nothing to show that Chun Kim Sut, or anyone in his behalf, paid or offered to pay $1000 or any other sum to any person or persons directly or indirectly connected with the county attorney's department for the purpose of influencing the trial or delaying or defeating justice in the case of the territory of Hawaii vs. Chun Kim Sut et al."

The omission of these two words in the Star-Bulletin's report was an entire inadvertence and the full report is now published to show that the jury made a complete exoneration of the county office and of all in any way connected with the office.

SIZEMORE CASE MAY BE BEFORE MEETING TONIGHT

Berry Sizemore, suspended bicycle officer, alleged to have displayed brutality in effecting the arrest of a Korean, who was charged with being drunk and disorderly, may learn his fate at the hands of the civil service commission at a hearing of the case this evening.

"I now have a large portion of the transcript of the mass of testimony taken during the several days that the investigation was conducted at my office," stated Sheriff Jarrett this morning.

"The matter of Sizemore's reinstatement or discharge from the force is one of the matters that may be brought up for action. Just what recommendation I may offer is a matter upon which I can not speak. There were 17 witnesses examined. This testimony amounts to over 60 pages of typewritten matter."

From a perusal of the testimony, a large percentage of the witnesses summoned to appear at the investigation favored Sizemore rather than censured him for the manner in which he effected the arrest.

The Korean, who figured in the case, and who had been charged with being drunk, has been released from custody by the sheriff.

GLOVES FURNISHED TO CALLERS ON PREFECT

Visitors to Paris Police Chief Must Select Pair at Door Before They Enter

[By Latest Mail]

PARIS. Visitors to the prefecture of the department of the Seine are always "handed with gloves," for, according to a peculiar and ancient custom, permission to enter the prefect's room cannot be obtained unless the caller wears gloves.

As soon as a gloveless person enters the reception room the usher remarks: "Your gloves, please?" If the visitor replies that he has no gloves the official says: "Then I will find you some." He keeps a large box filled with gloves of every size and shade, from which he provides the visitor with a new pair, for which he is expected to pay the equivalent of 50 cents.

The budget of the prefect of the Seine for 1914 is estimated at an equivalent of $85,800,000, or $2,600,000 more than this year. Among the suggestions for raising the revenue is that a special tax shall be placed on foreign residents living in Paris, based on the rental of their houses or apartments. The American colony is very strong in Paris, and if this recommendation were to be adopted it would affect 2000 or 3000 families.

"But, doctor," she said, "I want to raise my baby with all the modern improvements." "I don't see a single modern improvement about him," the prosaic old man replied. Chicago Record-Herald.
